

REGISTER NOW!

Confronting Family and Community Violence

The Intersection of Law and Psychology

A continuing education conference sponsored by the American Psychological Association and the American Bar Association

May 1-3, 2014, Washington Marriott Wardman Park, Washington, DC

- Keynote Speaker U. S. Attorney General Eric Holder on the effects of violence on children, youth and families, including his Defending Childhood Initiative.
- Plus more than 35 sessions addressing family and community violence in the context of aging, the military, LGBT concerns, Native American and ethnic minority concerns, disability, education, juvenile justice, child abuse & neglect, domestic violence and violent offenders.

Register by March 31 for early bird prices.

Book your hotel by April 2, and save.

Conference website at <http://www.apa.org/about/offices/ogc/apa-aba/conference.aspx>