Call for Applications to the ECC 2016-2017

The current ISPP Early Career Committee (ECC) is now accepting applications to the 2016-2017 ECC. By working with members of the ISPP, organizing events at the annual meeting, and maintaining several online sites that facilitate communication across the discipline, the ECC is an integral part of the ISPP community. This is an excellent opportunity to meet and work with other members of ISPP, provide input into the ECC, and enhance your curriculum vitae with international committee experience.

Open positions in the ECC are described below, with the number of available positions in parentheses:

Chair-Elect (1): Working under the current chair, this position is responsible for learning the ins and outs of the ECC, in preparation for taking the lead the following year. You will also work together with the chair ex-officio and the editors of our journals Political Psychology and Advances in Political Psychology for writing press releases and increasing visibility of the journals. Duties as chair include writing reports to the Governing Council, overseeing the Early Career budget, and representing the interests of early career scholars in ISPP. This position includes three years of service to ECC; as chair-elect, chair, and the final year of service is in the capacity of chair ex-officio.

Mentoring Program Coordinator (1): Organizes the mentoring lunch for the annual meeting.

Professional Development Coordinators (1): Organizes roundtable sessions in publishing and career development and the elevator pitch for the annual meeting.

Newsletter Editor (1): Solicits articles and announcements for the Early Career Committee newsletter that is published twice a year.

Web Resources Coordinator (2): Manages all web-related ECC archives and responsible for updating the ECC Blog and the ISPP Facebook and Twitter pages.

How to Apply:

To apply, email a curriculum vitae and a brief (max. 200 word) statement of your interest in the ECC and the ECC position(s) that are of most interest to you to ecc@ispp.org by April 30, 2016.

All ECC members are encouraged - but not required - to attend ISPP's annual meeting. Each nominee will be considered for an anticipated two-year term (except chair-elect which is a three year commitment). To make our committee more representative of ISPP's membership, we are looking for representatives from every continent.

A selection committee comprised of ECC members and Governing Council members will review the applications. The 2016-2017 ECC will be announced by the end of May with the new term beginning at the end of the annual meeting in July. Feel free to email us with any questions at ecc@ispp.org. The current ECC members are happy to assist you in any way possible. Thank you for your interest and good luck!
