

We are delighted to be featuring the work of two more of our authors in this month's Meet our Authors campaign, which allows you to hear from both established scholars and those who are just beginning their academic careers.

Please click below to read the thoughts of our featured authors and to receive a 50% discount on publications by these returning authors: Dr Bob East, an independent researcher specialising in terrorism in the Philippines, and Dr Bootheina Majoul, an Assistant Professor with 17 years' experience in the field of English studies.

This month's authors...

Dr Bob East is an independent Australian author and researcher. Bob's main focus of research is the Abu Sayyaf—the terrorist organisation in the southern Philippines—and in the words of one scholar at the University of Wollongong, his most recent volume “manages to cast light on a truly frightening situation”. Please click here to read his thoughts.

Dr Bootheina Majoul is Assistant Professor of English Studies at the Higher Institute of Applied Languages of Béja at the University of Jandouba, Tunisia. She is the author of three books, as well as several academic articles and five collections of poems. Please click here to read her thoughts.

Happy reading!

Christine

Christine von Gall
Deputy Editor
Cambridge Scholars Publishing
christine.von-gall@cambridgescholars.com