

Cambridge Scholars Publishing

This August marks the 1900th anniversary of the death of the Roman emperor Trajan, under whom the Roman empire reached its greatest extent. We are proud to publish titles in the continually evolving field of ancient history, and we are offering a 50% discount on 4 of our newest volumes on the Roman empire. Click here to read more.

We are also delighted to announce that Byron's Temperament: Essays in Body and Mind has been awarded the prestigious Elma Dangerfield Book Prize by the International Association of Byron Societies. The book was praised as “both original and significant” by the award committee. To read more and to receive a 50% discount on this book, please click here.

Our August discount campaigns, with a time-limited discount of up to 60%, include:

Book of the Month – this month's must-read is Art in the Age of Emergence, which explains the processes that happen in human minds when we share ideas as works of art. It is a “hugely enjoyable, intelligent and well-written book” according to American Arts Quarterly, and we are offering a 60% discount on this title. Please click here to find out more.

The Editorial Advisory Board's 'Recommended Reads' – this month, Professor Jon Nixon has chosen his recommended read: Learning Across Borders: Perspectives on International and Transnational Higher Education, edited by Leslie Seawright and Amy Hodges. We are offering a 50% discount on this book to all our readers: please click here to view Professor Nixon's choice.

Forthcoming Titles, New Releases and Best Sellers – be the first to know about our new and noteworthy, or best-selling titles—all reduced by up to 50%. Our Editors have hand-picked 9 titles that are generating a buzz. Please click on our homepage to view the selection.

Christine von Gall
Deputy Editor