

Cambridge Scholars Publishing

We are delighted to be featuring the work of two more of our authors in this month's Meet our Authors campaign, which allows you to hear from both established scholars and those who are just beginning their academic careers.

Please click below to read the thoughts of our featured authors and to receive a 50% discount on their titles.

This month's authors...

Erwin J. Warkentin is Associate Professor of German and an Associate Professor of Communications at the Memorial University of Newfoundland. He has published extensively on post-war German literature and culture, and his research interests include information control in post-war Germany, and, more broadly, propaganda and persuasion. Please click here to read his thoughts.

Dr Ali Shehata Abdou Selim is a senior member of staff at the Islamic Cultural Centre of Ireland. He is currently a guest lecturer at Smurfit College, UCD, and Chairperson of the Irish Muslim Board. Ali also lectures in Arabic at Trinity College, Dublin, having taught Arabic to a number of Irish politicians and members of the business community. Please click here to read his thoughts.

Happy reading!