

New and Featured Titles from Cambridge Scholars – October 2017

This month, Cambridge Scholars is marking the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, a major event in the 16th century that left an indelible mark on not only the landscape in Europe but also further afield, and we are offering our readers a 50% discount on four of our best-selling titles on Christianity since the Reformation. Click here to read more.

We are always pleased to read reviews of our titles, and we are delighted to showcase another noteworthy review this month. To find out more about the “illuminating” Kissinger and the Invasion of Cyprus: Diplomacy in the Eastern Mediterranean and for details about how you can have your title reviewed, please click here.

Our October discount campaigns, with a time-limited discount of up to 60%, include:

Book of the Month – this month’s must-read is The Unity-Based Family: An Empirical Study of Healthy Marriage, Family, and Parenting, which discusses creating loving and united marriages, nurturing and happy families, and rearing healthy and successful children. One Professor of Psychology says that “I wish I had had the knowledge and wisdom imparted in this book when I started my family forty years ago”, and we are offering a 60% discount on this title. Please click here to find out more.

The Editorial Advisory Board’s ‘Recommended Reads’ – this month, Professor Tim Connell has chosen his recommended read: Meaning in Translation: Illusion of Precision, edited by Larisa Ilynska and Marina Platonova. We are offering a 50% discount on this book to all our readers: please click here to view Professor Connell’s choice.

Forthcoming Titles, New Releases and Best Sellers – be the first to know about our new and noteworthy, or best-selling titles—all reduced by up to 50%. Our Editors have hand-picked 9 titles that are generating a buzz. Please click on our homepage to view the selection.

Happy reading!