

This November marks the 25th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall – on the 9th November 1989, Berliners from both sides of the ‘Iron Curtain’ wrote their own history. Germany was divided for 40 years; two generations. And yet, it is still possible to sense entrenched psychological differences between Osis and Wesis. To commemorate the 25th anniversary, and to reflect on the cultural, social and economic diversity of East and West Germany, we are offering a 50% discount on 4 of our best-selling titles related to this subject. Click here, to read more.

Also this month, Cambridge Scholars Publishing is very pleased to announce that we have been ranked fourth in the ‘World’s Top Ranked Publishers’ list, as compiled by the Library of Social Science. For more information, please click here.

Our November discount campaigns, with a time-limited discount of up to 60%, include:

Book of the Month – this month’s must-read is Seductive Screens: Children’s Media—Past, Present, and Future – a novel and timely exploration of the development of child media from its early beginnings to the millions of postings on Facebook today. Deemed “a brilliant introductory text”, we are offering a 60% discount on this title. Please click here to find out more.

The Editorial Advisory Board’s ‘Recommended Reads’ – this month Professor Chrissie Harrington has selected her pick from our best-selling and critically acclaimed titles, at a 50% discount. Please click here to view her choice.

New Releases – be the first to know about our new and noteworthy titles. Our Editors have hand-picked 6 titles that are generating a buzz, spanning the following subjects: Language and Literature, History, Social Science, Philosophy, Political Science, and Religion. Best of all, these are reduced by up to 50%. Please click on our homepage to view the selection.