DIRECTORY OF MEMBERS AND PARTICIPANTS

This is the second annual edition of the ISPP Directory. It lists the names and mailing addresses of ISPP members as of May 22, 1985. Participants in the 1983 program who are not members are also listed.

Every effort has been made to make the directory complete and accurate. Please submit corrections during the meeting (in writing) to the Executive Director or to the registration staff. Suggestions for improving the directory are also welcome.

The names of ISPP members (1984-85) who are not included as program participants are listed without notation.

The names of ISPP members (1984-85) who are included as program participants are followed by an asterisk (*) and the page number(s) of this program on which their name appears.

The names of program participants who are not ISPP members are followed only by the page number(s) of this program on which their name appears.

coming this fall from Duke—

Leaders Under Stress
A Psychophysiological Analysis of International Crises
Thomas C. Wiegele, Gordon Hildon, Kent Layne Oots, and Susan V. Kisel

"Impressive and attractive . . . the exploratory and pioneering character of the work is crystal clear. What comes out especially well is the blend of traditional documentary work and the insights of more qualitative analysis with the more quantitative aspects of the biopolitical and psychophysiological approach.

"I can't imagine that anyone would fail to be enthusiastic; this book is a very genuine contribution to social and behavioral science and interesting reading as well!"
—John Wahlke, The University of Arizona

Contents: The study of elites in international crises: the theoretical context / Methodology / Kennedy and the 1961 Berlin crisis / Johnson and the crisis in the Dominican Republic / Nixon and the Cambodian crisis / Comparative analyses / Conclusions / Appendixes

$37.50, available September 1985
224 pages, graphs, figures, tables, index
