

International Student Travel Assistance
Stipend to 2019 APA Convention

To encourage international participation, the APA Trauma Psychology Division (56) is providing a travel stipend to attend the 2019 APA Convention for international students who are citizens of developing countries and enrolled in a graduate psychology program in their home country, or enrolled in a graduate psychology program in the U.S., and who will be presenting a trauma related poster, paper, or a participant in a symposium or panel at the 2019 APA Convention in Chicago, Illinois.

The travel assistance stipend consists of $1000 for travel expenses to the 2019 APA Convention. This stipend is intended as partial support and matching grants or additional support from other institutions and organizations are also encouraged.

Deadline for submission: May 20, 2019

Please send a copy of your CV and the proposal abstract that was accepted for the APA convention and your country of citizenship to Elizabeth Carll, PhD, Division 56 International Committee at ecarll@optonline.net
