The Making of Psychohistory: Origins, Controversies, and Pioneering Contributors

Paul H. Elovitz, PhD

The Making of Psychohistory is the first volume dedicated to the history of psychohistory, an amalgam of psychology, history, and related social sciences. Dr. Paul Elovitz, a participant since the early days of the organized field, recounts the origins and development of this interdisciplinary area of study, as well as the contributions of influential individuals working within the intersection of historical and psychological thinking and methodologies. This is an essential, thorough reflection on the rich and varied scholarship within psychohistory’s subfields of applied psychoanalysis, political psychology, and psychobiography.

Paul H. Elovitz, PhD, is founder of the Psychohistory Forum, founder and editor-in-chief of the journal Clio's Psyche, a founding member and past president of the International Psychohistorical Association (IPA), and a founding member of Ramapo College of New Jersey.
