

New and Featured Titles from Cambridge Scholars - June 2019

On the 20th of June, join Cambridge Scholars Publishing in marking World Refugee Day. World Refugee Day is a day that is organised by the United Nations in order to "commemorate the strength, courage and perseverance of millions of refugees. This year, World Refugee Day also marks a key moment for the public to show support for families forced to flee."

To draw notice to World Refugee Day, we are offering our readers a 50% discount on four of our best-selling titles on the subjects of refugees and displacement. Please click here to see more.

Our June discount campaigns, with a time-limited discount of up to 60%, include:

Book of the Month – The must read of June 2019 is The Death of Childhood by Victor Strasburger. Strasburger provides a sobering look at what it means to grow up in America today. It is both an obituary to childhood and a work which offers solutions on how to restore the charm and innocence of youth. Please click here to find out more, and to receive a 60% discount on the book.

The Editorial Advisory Board's 'Recommended Reads' – This month, Dr. Shamini Srivastava has chosen her Recommended Read: Applied Social Psychology, edited by Patricia-Luciana Runcan and Georgeta Rață. The concept of applied social psychology aims at using social psychology theories and principles to improve the functioning of institutions and individuals, and we are offering a 50% discount on Shamini's choice. Please click here to read more.

Happy reading!

Christine
Deputy Editor

von-Gall