

The fifth annual political psychology pre-conference will be held at Georgetown University on Wednesday, August 28. The presenters will include:

- Ismail White (Duke University, Political Science)
- Betsy Levy Paluck (Princeton University, Psychology)
- Brian Nosek (University of Virginia, Psychology)
- Lauren Young (UC Davis, Political Science)

There will also be a panel focused on the political psychology of campaigns, elections, and survey response, including the following practitioners and scholars:

- Claudia Deane (Pew Research)
- Alex Lundry (Deep Root)
- Gary Segura (UCLA)
- LaFleur Stephens-Dougan (Princeton University)
- Aaron Strauss (Analyst Institute)
- Lynn Vavreck (UCLA)

In addition, there will be two poster sessions and other opportunities to network with political psychologists.

A light breakfast and lunch will be served, and a reception will follow.
